

“Istanbul-Seminar”- List of Topics
(presentation and co-presentation in each case)

1. The ratification of the Kyoto Protocol in Turkey and in Germany and its implementation in domestic law – and what’s next (Post-Kyoto)?
2. The development of environmental law under the influence of EU Law in Germany and in Turkey.
3. Climate protection via emissions trade – International Law and EU Law allegations and problems of an effective emissions trade in Germany and (prospectively) in Turkey.
4. Water protection law: The influence of the EU Water Framework Directive (2000/60/EC) on Turkish as well as German Water Protection Law.
5. Drinking Water protection: The influence of the EU Water Framework Directive (2000/60/EC) and its daughter Directives on the protection of water resources in Germany and in Turkey.
6. Sewage disposal: The influence of the EU Water Framework Directive (2000/60/EC), its daughter Directives and the EU Urban Waste Water Directive on water protection in Germany and Turkey.
7. Public drinking water supply: The significance of Article 9 EU Water Framework Directive (2000/60/EC) for the costing of the public drinking water supply in Germany and Turkey (“external environmental costs”).

8. Public sanitation: The significance of Article 9 Water Framework Directive (2000/60/EC) for the costing of the public drinking water supply in Germany and Turkey (“external environmental costs”).
9. Renewable energies and water protection: Hydraulic power stations in Germany and in Turkey as a source of the renewable energies (electricity generation) between the priorities of climate protection and water protection – Which precepts of International and EU Law have to be observed?
10. Environmental protection from the perspective of the European Convention of Human Rights (ECHR) in correspondence with the jurisdiction of the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) – Significance for European and National Law.
11. The Human Right to Water and Sanitation according to Art. 11 and 12 International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in connection with General Comment No 15 – Environmental implications the consequences for European and National (Environmental) Law.
12. The Human Right to Water and Sanitation according to Art. 11 and 12 International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in connection with General Comment No 15 – (How) Is it implemented in European and National Law?
13. The Concept of “Environmental Justice” – Importance for European and National (Environmental) Law?