

Oksana Balashova, Ismail Doga Karatepe,
Aishah Namukasa
(Eds.)

Where have all the classes gone?

A critical perspective on struggles and collective action

Labor and Globalization

Edited by Christoph Scherrer, Volume 8
ISBN 978-3-86618-893-8, Rainer Hampp Verlag,
Augsburg, München 2017, 300 S., € 29.80

Numerous uprisings and social movements in recent decades sprawled in seemingly disconnected political landscapes, from Turkey to Brazil, from South Africa to China, from Argentina to Portugal. These social protests centered on issues as varied as the right to affordable transportation, land dispossession or minority rights. The place of the working class in them seemed increasingly insignificant, and the framework of class analysis outdated. But did the concept of class really become obsolete? Are these social protests as disconnected as they seem?

“Where have all the classes gone? A critical perspective on struggles and collective action” is a book that aims to demonstrate the continuing relevance of class analysis in the study of social movements. Grounded in rich empirical data, it captures class-relevant aspects of multiple case studies of social movements, uprisings and resistances across different spatial contexts.

Key words: Class analysis, collective action, resistances in urban and rural spaces, critical approach

Editors: Oksana Balashova, Ismail Doga Karatepe and Aishah Namukasa are PhD fellows at the International Center for Development and Decent Work (ICDD) at Kassel University, Germany.

Order Form / Bestellcoupon
Please send / Bitte senden Sie

E-Mail: Hampp@RHVerlag.de

.. Ex 1893, Oksana Balashova et al. (Eds.): Where have all the classes gone? € 29.80
+ delivery charge (only foreign countries)

to:

(delivery address / Firmenstempel oder Anschrift in Druckbuchstaben)

(legally binding signature / rechtsverbindliche Unterschrift)

Rainer Hampp Verlag

Vorderer Lech 35
D – 86150 Augsburg

For European companies: please add VAT: _____

Please use order form next page if ordering from outside €-zone!

Book (please insert ISBN)	Price
ISBN 978-3-86618-893-8	29.80
ISBN
ISBN
+ delivery charge / per book	3.70
	Total/Summe

Please charge my / our credit account American Express

Master Card Visa

.....

Credit account no:

Expiry date:

Name (as it appears on credit card)

Signature: Date:

E-Mail: Hampp@RHVerlag.de

Rainer Hampp Verlag
c/o Brockhaus Comm.
Kreidlerstr. 9
D – 70803 Kornwestheim

(delivery address / Firmenstempel/Anschrift)

(legally binding signature / rechtsverbindliche Unterschrift)

Labor and Globalization, edited by Christoph Scherrer

Donna McGuire: Re-Framing Trade. Union Mobilisation against the General Agreement on Trade in Services (GATS)
Volume 1, ISBN 978-3-86618-392-6, 2013, 237 S., € 27.80

Christoph Scherrer, Debdulal Saha (Eds.): The Food Crisis. Implications for Labor
Volume 2, ISBN 978-3-86618-393-3, 2013, 225 S., € 19.80

Sarah Elisabeth Schmelzer-Roldán: The Impact of Electricity Sector Privatisation on Employees in Argentina and Brazil. A Comparative Institutional Analysis
Volume 3, ISBN 978-3-86618-394-0, 2014, 249 S., € 27.80

Akua O Britwum and Sue Ledwith (Eds.): Visibility and Voice for Union Women: Country case studies from Global Labour University researchers
Volume 4, ISBN 978-3-86618-395-7, 2014, 229 S., € 24.80

Christoph Scherrer (Ed.): The Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP): Implications for Labor
Volume 5, ISBN 978-3-86618-396-4, 2014, 209 S., € 24.80

Veerashekhharappa, Meenakshi Rajeev, Soumitra Pramanik: Reforming Cooperative Credit Structure in India for Financial Inclusion
Volume 6, ISBN 978-3-86618-397-1, 2014, 98 S., € 19.80

Luciana Hachmann: Pursuing a Developmental State Trade Agenda in a Neo-Liberal Context: Brazil and South Africa in Comparison
Volume 7, ISBN 978-3-86618-398-8, 2014, 214 S., € 24.80

This book explains why it was possible for the Worker's Party (PT) in Brazil and the African National Congress (ANC) in South Africa to pursue a developmental state trade policy, in spite of neoliberal constraints. The major theoretical lenses are three-fold. It applies state theory (macro-level), policy network analysis (meso-level) and theories on political parties with emphasis on factional politics (micro-level). This book highlights the socio-political relevance of comparatively progressive policy frameworks and expands the debate on how to re-gain national policy space for progressive reform policies even under neoliberal constraints.