

Thursday, August 29th, 2019, 11:00 am – 12:30 pm

Seminar Room 3004, Georg-Forster-Straße 4
Open Track II
Governance Models and Translation Processes
Chair: Michele Rostan
The Translation of the ESG in Institutional Accreditation Reports Jeroen Huisman, Maria Manatos
Governance Model in Russian University: If There is Any Impact of Recent Educational Reforms? Anna Panova, Maria Yudkevich
Bologna Higher Education Reforms in Lithuania Liudvika Leisyte

Chair

Michele Rostan (University of Pavia, Italy)

Michele Rostan is Full Professor of Economic Sociology and Director of the Centre for Study and Research on Higher Education Systems (CIRSIS) at the University of Pavia, Italy, where he is also Rector's Delegate for Student Affairs.

Speakers

Jeroen Huisman (Ghent University, Belgium)

Jeroen Huisman is professor of Higher Education at the Centre for Higher Education Governance Ghent. He holds a PhD in Public Administration of the University of Twente, the Netherlands (1995). In 2005, he was appointed professor of Higher Education Management at the University of Bath. In 2013, he moved to Ghent University, Belgium. He is editor of Higher Education Policy, co-editor of the SRHE/Routledge book series and co-editor of the Emerald series Theory and Method in Higher Education Research. His research interests are: Organisational change; institutional strategy, identity and image; national and supra-national higher education policies and their impact; and theory and methods in higher education.

Liudvika Leisyte (TU Dortmund University, Germany)

Liudvika Leišytė is Professor of Higher Education and Vice-Director at the Center for Higher Education (ZHB) at the Technical University of Dortmund in Germany and is a visiting senior scholar at the Center for Higher Education Policy Studies (CHEPS), University of Twente in the Netherlands. Prof. Leišytė's research focuses on academic work and organizational transformation in the context of changing institutional environment. Prof. Leišytė has actively been involved in a number of international and national research projects studying changing university governance, and management, interdisciplinarity, quality assurance and evaluation, and digitalization in higher education. In 2018 she received the Emerald Literati Award for the Highly Commended paper 2018 in the Learning Organization international journal. Prof. Leišytė has published five (co-edited) books on reforms of higher education, governance of higher education and organizational change in universities. She has written numerous chapters in edited books including Handbook of Higher Education Theory and Research as well as Handbook of Governance and Leadership. Her work has appeared in a number of prestigious international peer-reviewed journals, including Higher Education, Science and Public Policy, Studies in Higher Education, Minerva, Public Management, Public Administration. Prof. Leišytė is member of editorial boards of Higher Education Policy, Triple Helix, European Journal of Higher Education and is an International Advisory Board member of the Hungarian Higher Education Accreditation agency.

Maria João Manatos (Ghent University, Belgium)

Maria Manatos holds a doctoral degree in Management from the ISEG Lisbon School of Economics and Management, University of Lisbon. Her doctoral research discussed the integration of quality management policies and practices in higher education institutions. Since June 2008, she is a part-time researcher at CHEGG where she has been working on the Database of External Quality Assurance Reports (DEQAR) project. She is also an external associated researcher at the Centre for Research in Higher Education Policies (CIPES), in Portugal. She has been collaborating as an education and higher education expert in European organisations. She has published her work in higher education and quality management journals.

Anna Panova (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia)

Anna Panova is a research fellow of the Centre for Institutional Studies at HSE University and a senior lecturer at the Economics Department of HSE. She has a PhD in Economics. The main area of her interest and research activity is Economics of higher education.

Maria Yudkevich (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia)

Maria Yudkevich graduated from Lomonosov Moscow State University (Department of mechanics and mathematics) in 1996 and got a Master degree in Economics from Higher School of Economics in 1998. Got PhD at HSE (2003). Head of the International Laboratory for Institutional Analysis of Economic Reforms (LIA HSE), implementing projects in the field of theoretical and empirical analysis of the socio-economic institutions. HSE Vice-Rector, who is responsible for coordinating the fundamental research and academic development at HSE. Professional Interests: institutional economics, economics of education, contract theory, game theory.