

Thursday, August 29th, 2019, 9:00 am – 10:30 am

|  |
|--|
| Seminar Room 3004, Georg-Forster-Straße 4  |
| Open Track II  |
| Governance and Academic Leadership   |
| Chair: Benedetto Lepori   |
| Governance Relationships at the University Level. An Analysis from the Agency Theory PerspectiveMario Alarcón Bravo                               |
| Academic Leadership Roles and Qualifications: A Look at Canadian University Presidents and Provosts across Thirty YearsEric Lavigne, Creso Sá     |
| Scientific Collaboration before and after Government Intervention: Case of Russian UniversitiesNataliya Matveeva, Ivan Sterligov, Maria Yudkevich |

Chair

Benedetto Lepori (Università della Svizzera italiana (USI), Switzerland)

Benedetto Lepori is professor at the Università della Svizzera italiana. His research focuses on studies of higher education diversity and management, with a strong quantitative focus. He is the coordinator of the European Tertiary Education Register.

Speakers

Mario Alarcón Bravo (Leiden University, The Netherlands)

Mario Alarcón is a PhD candidate in Higher Education at Leiden University. He works as a consultant in institutional governance affairs, advising university rectors in Chile and Latin America.

Eric Lavigne (University of Toronto, Canada)

Eric Lavigne is a postdoctoral fellow at OISE, University of Toronto. His research program focuses on higher education management and managers. In particular, he is interested in how organizational monitoring and control, principally done through performance evaluations, shape managers' leadership.

Nataliya Matveeva (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia)

Nataliya Matveeva graduated from Perm State Pedagogical University (Department of Informatics and Economics) in 2011 and got a Master degree in Economics from Higher School of Economics in 2015. Research Assistant of The Center for Institutional Studies HSE. Areas of interest: social network analysis, higher education, scientometrics, applied econometrics.

Creso Sá (University of Toronto, Canada)

Creso Sá is Professor of Higher Education and Director of the Centre for the Study of Canadian and International Higher Education (CIHE) at the University of Toronto. His work focuses on science & technology policy, the evolving role of universities in the economy, and the organization of science. He is Editor-in-Chief of the Canadian Journal of Higher Education.

Ivan Sterligov (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia)

Ivan Sterligov graduated from Moscow State University in 2006 and after working for several years as a science policy observer and analyst at private companies, in 2012 became the director of the special unit of the Ministry of Education and Science' analytics center. In 2014 Ivan joined the HSE and in 2015 headed the newly-created Scientometrics Center. His interests include research evaluation, applied scientometrics and science policy studies.

Maria Yudkevich (National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia)

Maria Yudkevich graduated from Lomonosov Moscow State University (Department of mechanics and mathematics) in 1996 and got a Master degree in Economics from Higher School of Economics in 1998. Got PhD at HSE (2003). Head of the International Laboratory for Institutional Analysis of Economic Reforms (LIA HSE), implementing projects in the field of theoretical and empirical analysis of the socio-economic institutions. HSE Vice-Rector, who is responsible for coordinating the fundamental research and academic development at HSE. Professional Interests: institutional economics, economics of education, contract theory, game theory.