

Professor Dr. Christoph Scherrer

Qualifications: Dr. habil. (political science, Berlin), Dr. phil. (political science, Frankfurt), M.A. economics (Frankfurt).

Current Position: Full Professor of International Political Economy, Executive Director International Center for Development and Decent Work, University of Kassel.

Previous Appointments: Guest Professor of European Politics, Berlin School of Economics (2000), Research Associate, Social Science Center Berlin (2000), Guest Professor, University of Kassel (1999), Assistant Professor, Free University Berlin (1990-1998).

International Experience: Visiting Professor, University of the Philippines, Quezon City (2015), Senior Fellow Center for Post-Growth Societies, University of Jena (2013), Visiting scholar, International Labor Organization (2011), Visiting Professor, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai (2008); Visiting Fellow YCIAS, Yale University (2004), Kennedy Memorial Fellow, Harvard University (1996/97), Guest Professor, Rutgers University at Newark (1994).

Research and study programs related to International Political Economy: Currently involved in a project on global supply chains in various industries including the garment industry (Hans-Böckler-Foundation) and project leader on Decent Work in Global Agricultural Production Systems (ICDD), in 2016/17 advisor for 4 country studies on the garment industry: Bangladesh, Cambodia, Pakistan, Vietnam (Friedrich-Ebert-Foundation), numerous studies on the "Social Dimensions of International Trade" funded by Hans-Böckler-Stiftung (HBS), Friedrich-Ebert-Foundation (FES), German Foreign Office, German Parliament, the European Parliament (2008/09), and the Austrian Chancellery (2010).

Chair of Master's Programs "Labour Policies and Globalisation" and "Global Political Economy"; Chair "Graduate School of Socio-Ecological Research and Development"; Chair of many DAAD funded Alumni Summer Schools, FES funded yearly Kassel Int. Summer Academy on the World Market, and U of Rutgers funded European Summer Institute.

Selected University and Professional Services: Member of University Senate (2006-2015); Dean (2005-2008) and Dean for Study Programs (2003-2005) Department of Social Sciences; Chair of five Faculty Search Committees; Co-Chair Politics and Economics Section of the German Association of Political Scientist (2003-2006); Member of Steering Committee Global Labour University (2006 -), of EU-Network of Excellence GARNET (2005 - 2010), of DFG network "Politische Ökonomie der globalen Finanzialisierungsprozesse" and of the EU network "Systemic Risks, Financial Crisis and Credit" (COST IS0902). Reviewer for many journals, incl. African Journal of Political Science and International Relations.

Awards: DAAD Award for Excellence in Development Cooperation (2009), Excellence in Teaching Award of the State of Hesse (2007).

Recent or relevant publications: Author of 11 monographs, editor of 16 anthologies and author of over 200 articles and book chapters in journals such as Capital & Class, Critical Policy Studies, Global Labour Journal, Intereconomics, International Journal of Labour Research, Journal of Economic Issues, Journal of World-Systems Research, Leviathan, New Political Science, Prokla, Review of International Political Economy.

Selected recent publications: Enforcement Instruments for Social Human Rights along Supply Chains, Augsburg, edited (2017), Combating Inequality: The Global North and South, London, co-edited (2015), Neoliberalism's resilience: a matter of class, in: Critical Policy Studies, author (2014), The Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership: Implications for Labor, Mering, edited (2014), Financial Cultures and Crisis Dynamics, London, co-edited (2014), Food Crisis: Implications for Labour, Mering, co-edited (2013), Von der Finanzialisierung zurück zum Boring Banking? In: Vierteljahresheft zur Wirtschaftsforschung, author (2013), Die Post-hegemoniale USA?, in: Zeitschrift für Außen- und Sicherheitspolitik, author (2013), Reproducing Hegemony: US Finance Capital and the 2008 Crisis, in: Critical Policy Studies, author (2011), China's Labor Question, München, edited (2011); Globalisierung, Göttingen, co-authored (2011), The Role of Gender Knowledge in Policy Networks, Baden-Baden, co-edited (2010), Post-Modern and Post-structural International Political Economy, in: Denmark, Robert A. (ed.): The International Studies Association Encyclopedia, Oxford, co-authored with J. Wullweber (2010).