

First Kassel Workshop on Folk Economics

Tuesday, July 2nd

Preliminary Program

The workshop will take place in the seminar room of the Zentrum für Umweltbewusstes Bauen, Gottschalkstraße 28 a, 34127 Kassel (tram line 1 or 5, tram stop "Holländischer Platz/Universität" or "Halitpklatz")

9.45-10.00	Coffee & Welcome
10.00-10.45	Michael Roos , Birte Hoffmann & Andreas Orland	Folk economics, political philosophy, and party preference
10.45-11.30	Marco Lehmann-Waffenschmidt	Effects of Folk Theories on Policy Making
11.30-11.45	Coffee Break
11.45-13.00	Detlef Fetchenhauer	Evolutionary and psychological perspectives on Folk Economics - and why economics should care about them
13.00-14.30	Lunch Break
14.30-15.15	Aleksandra Halka & Tomasz Lyziak	How to define the Consumer Perceived Price Index? The case of Poland
15.15-15.45	Michael Roos presenting Andreas Orland's paper	Personality Traits and the Perception of Macroeconomic Indicators: Survey Evidence
15.45-16.15	Coffee Break
16.15-17.00	Birte Hoffmann	Students' attitudes towards real world economics and how it is affected by the choice of discipline and personality traits
17.00-17.45	Bernd Hayo & Florian Neumeier	Attitudes toward Public Budget Consolidation: Evidence from a representative German Survey
Dinner		