

Humane work and economic expansion in relation to the orange

➡ Fruits become more expensive but on the other hand the employees have better working conditions!

1)

I hate this job. It is always the same. We get half the money we should get.

2)

Me too. But what can we do. You know what revolution leads to. We get dismissed and remember the violence.

1)

But this can't be possible. Human beings want to make profit by preying us. We need to talk to the buyers. Maybe if they don't buy the cheap fruits anymore and get involved with better working conditions, we get a better job.

2)

We can try it.
