

The Indian Consul General, Srimati. Pratibha Parkar, and the Education Officer and Social Secretary to Consul General, Ms. Mridula Singh, visited the International Center for Development and Decent work (ICDD), along with Dr. Oberschmidt, Development Planning International, of the University of Kassel on 6th June 2019. They met with Ms. Birgit Felmeden, the Executive Director of the ICDD, Dr. Meenakshi Rajeev, a visiting lecturer from the Institute for Social and Economic Change (ISEC), Bangalore, India and Ms. Jahnvi Rao, a Research Assistant at the ICDD. During this meeting, the visitors were given an overview of the aims of the ICDD and then introduced to its collaborative activities with its various research partners in India, mainly ISEC, the Jawaharlal Nehru University (JNU), and the Tata Institute of Social Sciences (TISS).

The Indian Consul General informed the meeting about the various Indo-German collaborations and the upcoming Yoga Day inaugurated by Ms. Pratibha Parkar in Köln on the 23rd of June, 2019.

The meeting ended on a positive note, with the Consul General assuring the others of the continuing enthusiasm of the Consulate of India for current and future collaborations as well as promising their full cooperation to further these aims.