English-Taught-Courses – Summer Semester 2026

Some General Information: Semester Weekly Hours and Course Selection

- At the University of Kassel, exchange students are welcome to choose courses outside their faculty.
- In addition to courses taught in English, there are also courses taught in German that are supplemented with materials in English.
- In many cases, it is possible to take exams in English, even if the course is conducted in German.
- Bachelor students may enroll in Master-level courses, provided they obtain prior approval from the respective course lecturer.

ECTS Credits (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System):

- The allocation of ECTS credits may vary depending on the course and the type of assessment (e.g., essay, presentation, exam).
- In many seminars, the number of credits awarded depends on the type and extent of coursework completed. This should always be clarified directly with the respective lecturer at the beginning of the course.
- As a general rule, 1 ECTS credit corresponds to approximately 25–30 hours of workload, including class attendance, preparation, assignments, and examinations.
- For specific details regarding ECTS credits, please refer to the examination regulations (Prüfungsordnung) of the respective program, or consult the course lecturer or the examination office (Prüfungsamt) of the relevant faculty.

Semester Weekly Hours (SWS):

- This indicates the number of hours per week a student is expected to attend a specific course during a semester.
- For example, a course with 2 SWS typically requires 2 hours of attendance per week.
- SWS only reflect contact hours; the total workload is defined by the corresponding ECTS credits.

Course Selection and Learning Agreement:

- The course selection made before arrival is usually provisional. Adjustments can be made during the first weeks of the semester in consultation with the lecturers and the faculty coordinator at the University of Kassel.
- The Learning Agreement is issued by your home university and must be signed both by the coordinator at your home university and the faculty coordinator at the University of Kassel.

Semester Dates:

- Winter semester: October – March (lectures usually from mid-October to mid-February).
- Examinations typically take place at the end of the lecture period or during the following weeks.
- Questions regarding exact examination dates should always be addressed directly to the respective lecturer.

Examinations and Assessments:

- Types of examinations vary (e.g., written exams, term papers, oral exams, or presentations).
- Students should confirm the examination requirements directly with the lecturer at the beginning of the course.

Language Requirements:

- No official German proficiency is required for courses taught in English.
- For courses taught in German, a minimum level of B1/B2 is generally recommended to follow lectures and complete coursework successfully.

(20) FB20 - School of Art and Design: Kunsthochschule (KHK)

Due to the distinctive study programmes and the organisational structure of the Faculty of Fine Arts, not all English-taught courses offered by the faculty are listed in our official course catalogue. Once a student has been nominated by a partner university, the application proceeds by submitting a portfolio for evaluation by the responsible professor. If the portfolio is approved, the student is admitted to a class that corresponds to his or her field of study. Furthermore, students are invited to attend lectures, workshops, and project courses within the Faculty of Fine Arts, subject to the consent of the respective instructor. We guarantee that every enrolled student will be able to obtain the required 30 ECTS credits per semester.

In order to ensure transparency and comparability of study workload, the School of Art and Design (KHK) provides the following guideline for converting Semester Hours (SWS) into Credit Points (CP). This system allows international students to better understand the expected workload of each module and to transfer credits more easily to their home institutions.

Guideline for Converting Semester Hours (SWS) into Credit Points (CP)

1. Basic Principles
   - Semester Hours per Week (SWS): Number of weekly contact hours of a course during the teaching period.
   - Teaching Period:
     - Winter semester: 14 weeks
     - Summer semester: 12 weeks
   - Credit Points (CP): Measure of student workload representing the total study volume of a module.

2. Conversion Formula
   1 SWS = 1.5 CP

3. Workload per Credit Point
   1 CP corresponds to approximately 20 hours of total student workload, including contact hours, self-study, assignments, and examination preparation.

4. Calculation of Total Workload
   - Formula: Workload (hours) = CP × 20
   - Since CP = SWS × 1.5, this results in:
     - Winter semester contact hours: SWS × 14 weeks
     - Summer semester contact hours: SWS × 12 weeks
   - Self-study: Total workload – contact hours

5. Examples
   - Module with 4 SWS:
     - CP: 4 × 1.5 = 6 CP
     - Total workload: 6 × 20 = 120 hours

     Winter semester (14 weeks):
     - Contact hours: 4 × 14 = 56 hours
     - Self-study: 120 – 56 = 64 hours

     Summer semester (12 weeks):
     - Contact hours: 4 × 12 = 48 hours
     - Self-study: 120 – 48 = 72 hours

6. Notes
   - This guideline ensures transparency and helps organize the study workload at the School of Art and Design, University of Kassel.
   - For European recognition, the following rough conversion applies:
     1 ECTS ≈ 3.2 CP
